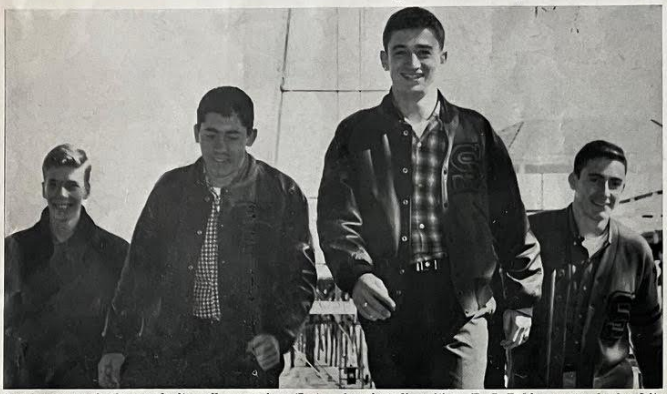
Senior Class Takes Leading Honors In Annual Student Popularity Voting



Sharing honors in the popularity poll are seniors (L. to R.) Lars Phillips, most intelligent; Jean Larroux, happiest disposition; E. J. Babin, most school spirit; Pat Mashburn, most popular.

Taken a few weeks ago among the high school student body, the Popularity Poll revealed the following results:

Pat Mashburn, senior class president, took the MOST POPULAR place among the student body by a wide margin.

Following Mashburn's footsteps was E. J. Babin who was voted the second most popular fella. Tied for third place were Bobby Lobrano, Mike Mashburn, and Tony Loffredo.

According to the student body Jay B. Sunseri is the BEST DRESSED among us followed by Pat Mashburn who dressed himself into second place.

Last year's champ, Walton Clarke, gave his competitors a break as he slipped into third place.

The BEST LOOKING one to walk our campus is Georgia boy, Walton Clarke, who had quite a time snatching the title from second placeman Pat Mashburn.

Filling the third rank was sophomore Colden Jones.

Diez chosen best dancer

Senior Henry Diez really kicked up his heels to cop the first place in the BEST DANCER position.

Last year's top dancer Donald Smith tied for second place with E. J. Babin. If its a mambo, samba, tango, or else, he'll do it so says third placeman Rafael Ortiz.

If anyone is for a HAPPY DISPOSITION, Jean Larroux, definitely is and everyone agrees, as he is awarded the number one spot of the category.

Donald Saucier, with his raucous laughter, wins second place and Vi Vidrine holds on to third position as he has for the second consecutive year.

Former grid halfback and cager guard E. J. Babin won the BEST ATHLETE award followed by Pat Mashburn, who took second place. Capturing third position was Prieur Leary.

Phillips named most intelligent

Senior honor students Lars Phillips, Bobby Lobrano, and Richard Matamoros were voted MOST INTELLIGENT. Lars occupys first place; and Bobby, second. Closely following, Richard is the third most intelligent.

Twangy guitarman, Tommy Ewton, filled the number one post of BEST MUSICIAN. Clarinetist Albert Brignac and Saxphonist George Hill took second and third places respectively.

MOST WILLING TO HELP ANOTHER a second time around, is Vi Vidrine, who helped himself into first place.

Richard Matamoros copped second, with Steve Butaud and Mike Masburn tying for third.

No medical reports can scare Pete Hebert as he took the distinguished honor of BIGGEST CIGARETTE BUMMER by a wide margin.

Mike Lang holds on to second place with a firm grip. Tying for third were Ernie Lester, N. J. Yuja, and Rolf Seeberg.

THE LOUDEST on the campus is, without doubt, Brian Henrie. Hugh Bohne and N. J. Yuja offered a little competition, but settled for second honors. The voice of Rafael Ortiz could be heard faintly in third place.

Most polite category to Vi Vidrine

Vi Vidrine copped first place in the MOST POLITE category by a wide margin. Al Callia filled the second post, with the Mashburn brothers, Pat and Mike, tying for third honors.

Pete Hebert can out-argue anyone as to why he should have a cigarette and come out on top defending his title of MOST ARGUMENTATIVE.

John Ladner took second position, with E. J. Babin and Rafael Ortiz sharing the third position.

E. J. Babin was the winner of the MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT award. Bobby Lobrano was voted to the number two position, and Pat Mashburn took the third spot.

Those two charmers, Nickie Kingston and Juan Solis, edged out the entire student body with their coveted category of BIGGEST LOVERS. Gary Blaize took second, followed by third charmer Gerald Broussard.

Rock-A-Chaw Ad Receives Response

We wish to thank the parents of sophomore Colden Jones for responding so generously to the request Brother Loyola placed in the December issue of the Rock-A-Chaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones sent Brother approximately 150 copies of NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC MAGAZINE. These valuable copies span the years 1917-1929.

Brother Loyola commented that he will now be able to make more complete bound copies now on the library shelves in school conducted by the Brothers. He also remarked that issues of the year 1960 would be particularly appreciated.

Again we ask our readers to send Brother any back issues of this magazine that they wish to dispose of.

R. Matamoros, Ed.

Bro. William, S. C., Jubilarian, Former S. S. C. President, Dies

Brother William, S.C., an exemplary religious, an outstanding teacher, and an exceptionally talented administrator, closed a life rich with accomplishments January 31.

He exerted a tremendous influence for good upon all with whom he came in contact.

Alumni in speaking of Brother William commented: "He was an outstanding teacher, even if he did pile on the work." He gave me the incentive to make something of myself, and I believe I have succeeded."

"Brother William prepared me most solidly to face the problems of life." "He was a man who did much to enhance the educational prestige of Stanislaus; under his administration we won recognition everywhere."

At the time of his death, Brother William was 67 years old. He had celebrated the golden jubilee of his religious profession two years earlier, with his confrere Brother Julius, presently stationed at Cor Jesu High School of New Orleans.

During the course of his teaching career, Brother William taught in all the schools conducted by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart in the New Orleans Province.

Particularly accomplished in the classical and modern languages, Brother was also at home teaching in the science and mathematics fields.

He was an able administrator. Over a period of 15 years, he filled the post of superior at McGill High School, Mobile, Alabama; St. Joseph High School, Muskogee, Oklahoma; and St. Stanislaus.

In the latter school, succeeding Brother Peter, he intensified and completed the educational program that earned for Stanislaus the reputation of being one of the most respected boarding schools for young men in the South.

Brother William by his life and death was an example to his confreres and to the students who came under his influence.

He was a source of edification and encouragement to his Brothers in religion by his faithful observance of his holy rule.

By his personal example he proved to Catholic youth that a vocation to the Brotherhood offers to those who have the courage and generosity to accept, a life of intimate love of the Sacred Heart.

A love that manifests itself in the willingness to devote oneself to the noblest of callings—a religious teacher and guide of youth.

Brother William will be long remembered for the work he did while at St. Stanislaus. Pictured with Brother are Mr. A. J. Combe, '34, of New Orleans, and Mr. Sylvan Ladner, '34, of Bay St. Louis.

Does Your College Qualify ?

We among the high school seniors of the country are presently making plans to attend college in the fall. Unfortunately many of us will be unable to attend Catholic institutions, and must make arrangements to enroll in a secular college.

It is for those of us who must attend secular institutions of higher learning that the Newman Club Foundation exists.

Catholic centers upon the campuses of all secular colleges is the wish of the Bishops of the United States. Presently there are approximately 800 secular colleges upon whose campuses there exists a Newman center. These centers serve almost 500,000 Catholic students.

The Newman Club Foundation aims at establishing and promoting programs of religious education and catholic social activities for Catholic students attending these colleges.

These programs and activities seek to protect the student by providing an atmosphere that will prevent his becoming entirely absorbed by the secular spirit of the college.

We should make it a point to check to see if the college we are planning to attend has a Newman center. If it does not, we should give serious consideration to the advisability of attending such an institution.

If in doubt as to whether or not a particular school has a Newman center, such information may be obtained by writing to:

Rev. Charles Albright, C.S.P., Executive Director
Newman Club Foundation
1312 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington 5, D. C.

The Newman Club Foundation takes its name from that of Cardinal John Henry Newman, an Oxford scholar, who conceived the idea of establishing Catholic centers at secular colleges for the spiritual needs of Catholic students.

Finally, when the Catholic student arrives on the campus, he should look up the Newman Club chaplain—don't wait to be looked up by the chaplain.

Around the Campus

Brother Andre, provincial, visited the campus on the 19th and stayed through the 26th of February. During his stay, he visited the classrooms and briefly spoke to the students.

After Brother Felician renovated the old Rock-A-Chaw bus for the use of the scholastics at Springhill, he made a trial run to St. Stanislaus. Many of the Brothers accompanied him.

* * * * *

U.S.O. players presented Peter Pan in the gym March 4. The performance was very good. The audience particularly enjoyed the flying scenes of Peter.

* * * * *

Seniors have been busy again writing themes and research papers for their English and history classes. They should be well prepared for the papers they shall be required to write in college next year.

* * * * *

An exhibition of speed was displayed between Colden Jones and Juan Solis in a friendly challenge at the 100 yard dash. The outcome found Colden on top by five yards.

* * * * *

During the Mardi Gras holidays the Brothers purchased a new GMC pick-up truck, to replace two of the old trucks that were sold.

* * * * *

The seniors returned from their closed retreat Wednesday. We hope that all went well, and that the retreat proved as profitable this year as it did last year's senior class.

To Brother Athanasius and to all the other Irishmen among us we wish a sincere and happy St. Patrick's day.

Band members performed February 16, the second day of the independent basketball tournament sponsored by the Sidelines Club.

Brother Philip, secretary of the organization, commented that the tournament was very successful.

Under the direction of Mr. Paoli, marching practice for the band has begun.

On February 18, George Hill attended the Pearl River Junior College band clinic. He placed first on alto sax.

Brother Luke, we wish to welcome you back to the campus. We were glad to hear that your operation was successful. You had a special remembrance in our prayers.

We extend our condolences to Brother Andries on the recent death of his aunt.

Now Is The Acceptable Time

Passiontide, the final phase of the Lenten season begins Sunday. This period consecrated exclusively to the memory of Christ's sufferings should awaken in us added incentives to do penance.

Pope Leo I in a Lenten homily addressed words to the early Christians that we would do well, now, to consider seriously.

"Having to announce to you the most sacred and chief fast, how can I more appropriately begin than with the words of the apostle Paul, in whom Christ spoke: Behold, now is the acceptable time; Behold, now is the day of salvation.

"For although there is never a time which is not filled with the gifts of divine grace, and even though by God's grace His mercy is always accessible to us, nevertheless the hearts of all should be animated by a greater trust and moved by a more intense fervor to advance spiritually now that the anniversary of the day of our redemption is approaching.

"The return of that day urges us to the pious performance of every act of virtue, that with cleansed minds and purified bodies we may celebrate the all-excelling mystery of our Lord's sacred passion.

"It is true that our devotion and reverence towards so great a mystery should be kept up during the whole year. We should be at all times, in the eyes of God, the same as we are bound to be at the Easter solemnity.

"But this is an effort which only few of us have the courage to sustain. The weakness of the flesh induces us relax our austerities; the various occupations of every-day life takes up our thoughts; and thus even the virtuous find their hearts clogged by this world's dust.

"Hence it is that our Lord has providentially given us these days to regain our purity of soul. Let us do as the apostle bids us.

"Our fast does not consist in the mere abstinence from food; nor is it of much use to deny food to our body, unless we restrain the soul from sin."

Concurso De Popularidad Latino

Por Raul Matamoros

El concurse de popularidad que tenemos todos los anos efecto hace unos dias y como en los anos anteriores los resultados fueron excepcionales.

Como el mas popular no podia ser otro que el incomparable Oscar Herrera (conocido por muchos como Cachiro, Bimbo, etc.) pues con la campana que hize nos convencio a todos. Raul Matamoros se gano el segundo lugar seguido por "La Jashtada", Rafael Ortiz.

El mejor amigo, segun nuestros companeros, es Raul Matamoros (nada de trampa) quien ocupo primer lugar. Oscar Herrera y Waldo Caceres se pelearon por el segundo lugar y Guim Boucugnani, y Enrique Diez, se conformaron con quedar terceros.

Enrique Diez arrastre con los votes de mejor bailarin. Solo hay que ver al muchacho moverse al compas de la musica para convencerse de su habilidad. Raul Matamoros y Oscar Herrera empataron en segundo lugar y el incomparable Freddie Gruber, el muchacho que nunca se rie, quedo en tercer lugar.

Como mejor deportista tenemos nada menos que a Waldo Caceres quien defendio con exite el titulo que se gano el ano pasado. El segundo lugar resulto en un empate entre Rolando Mora y Roberto Venegas seguidos de cerca por Juan Solis, quien causo gran impresion de sus habilidades como corredor en una competencia que sostuvo con un amigo recientemente.

Y quien es el que prefiere quedarse aqui en el colegio estudiando en vez de ir al cine o a los bailes? Pues ningun otro que Ricardo Matamoros quien estudia tanto que tiene las paginas de sus cuadernos transparentes de tanto manocearlas. No muy atras (pues este si va a los bailes), en segundo lugar, esta Oscar Herrera, seguido de cerca por el distinguido tico Alberto Lacombe.

El mas alegre resulto siendo Rafael Ortiz, seguido de cerca por Johnny Saravanja. Jorge Casares y Enrique Diez compartieron el tercer puesto.

El mas fuerte? El rompecadenas? No hay ni que discutirlo pues todos sabemos que Freddie Gruber se lleva el titulo. Roberto Venegas obtuvo segundo lugar y Johnny "Steve Reeves" Saravanja quedo tercero.

El que siempre esta dispuesto a ayudar es Richardo Matamoros, especialmente los lunes en la manana cuando nadie ha hecho la tarea. Juan Solis presta sus tareas menos, pues solo obtuvo segundo lugar. Los tres samaritanos, Oscar Herrera, Rafael Ortiz y Guillermo Guim, obtuvieron el tercer puesto.

Rafael Ortiz sin discusion fue elegido como el mas griton pues en cualquier rincon del colegio se oye la voz del "Chapin". No muy atras quedaron empatados Guillermo "La Vaca" Guim y Juan DeDianous quienes se gritaron por segundo lugar y el "criollo" Ramon Barzana ocupo tercero.

"Mas Cortes" resulto ser Juan Solis. Nunca le falta decir gracias y es tan buen ejemplo que cuando lo campusearon hace unos dias no se le olvido darle las gracias a nuestro prefecto. Cortesia? En segundo y tercer lugar quedaron Anibal Boucagnani; Raul Matamoros y Jorge Casares.

Fun, Entertainment, Happiness Keynote Summer Sessions of Camp Stanislaus

Fun, entertainment, happiness, and character training keynote the atmosphere of S.S.C. during the summer sessions of Camp Stanislaus.

In operation more than a quarter of a century, Camp Stanislaus, staffed by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, offers a program directed toward fulfilling the individual needs of each camper.

Brother counsellors devote themselves to the spiritual, moral, physical, and social development of their young charges.

Planned programs of activities, wholesome food, and regular habits develop the young bodies of the campers, while "Character in action" teaching teamwork and cooperation, enhances their competetive spirit.

Hobbies and crafts enable the camper to learn how to utilize his leisure time in an enjoyable an instructive manner.

Safety and skill in the use of firearms and while in the water provide for developing the powers of observation, teaching self-control, and curbing recklessness.

Spacious grounds provide adequate room for all "land" games, including softball, handball, tennis, horseback riding, and archery.

Waters of the Gulf of Mexico, immediately in front of Camp Stanislaus provide every facility for salt water swimming, fishing, and boating.

The 1000 foot Stanislaus pier, overpassing the highway, leads campers safely to the inviting waters of the Gulf.

Affiliated with the American Red Cross Water Safety Program, and the National Rifle Association, Camp Stanislaus is accredited to award certificates and diplomas in both activities.

Camp Stanislaus is aptly described in the definition of an ideal Catholic camp by Bishop Spalding:

"To run, to jump, to ride, to swim, to skate, to sit in the shade of trees by flowing water . . . To learn to know every change that comes over the heavens from the dewy freshness of early dawn to the restful calm of evening.

"This is education of a higher and more real kind than it is possible to receive within the walls of a school; and lacking this, nothing shall have power to develop the faculties of the soul in symmetry and completeness."

'Vues n Views

By Richard Matamoros

With a picture of what's coming to our community in a few days, we can expect a boost toward the better in our week-end entertainment.

Movie version of drama critic Walter Kerr's book Please Don't Eat the Daisies has to do with Kerr's wife Jane and her three mischievous tots.

Mama Doris Day and papa David Niven not only solve problems of their own, but have to contend with three little devils. All the ancedotes were put together quite smoothly and make for a very entertaining film.

Comedy seems to be outstanding among the latest features of the cinema. Another rib-tickler coming our way is a war farce called The Wackiest ship in the Army.

Funnyman Jack Lemmon commands the boat; Crooner Ricky Nelson hits the high C's in this very unprofessional method of carrying out a perilous secret mission against the Japanese.

Sports fans, this program will also include the Patterson-Johanssen Fight.

Walt Disney's Pollyana is a show for a sentimental audience. Adopted from Jane Porter's classic, the movie, as the book, claims the heroine who sees good in everybody. She changes quite a few lives and in the meantime provides enjoyable entertainment.

Several new books are presently available in the library.

Edna Ferber's Cimarron is an absorbing story of Yancy Cravat, who has the wanderlust; and wife Sabra, who stays home to operate the family business.

From the Oklahoma land rush to statehood, covering three generations of the Cravats, the book captures the drama and conflict of pioneer America.

In 1951, Herman Wouk wrote his Pulitzer prize winning novel The Caine Mutiny.

Action centers around tormented captain Queeg and the men under his command, who take part in the Pacific theater of World War II. See for yourself; start reading and try stopping.

Heading the platter poll for the month is Think Twice for My Baby, which is done by Brook Benton. Following closely behind is the gal with the golden voice, Connie Frances, who for the past week has been telling us Where the Boys Are.

What a Price bellows Fats Domino to fill third spot: Don't Worry sings Marty Robbins, number four, to those Everlys who are just crazy about Ebony Eyes, number five.

Work Crews Assist Brothers In Maintenance On Campus

Every afternoon after classes, while most students are changing into their play clothes and getting ready for yard leagues, another group known as the "Working Crews" are making preparations for their afternoon chores.

This group, made up entirely of boarders, is in charge of assisting the Brothers in the maintenance of the campus. So far this year they have done a superb job.

Brother Alban, who has been the school dietitian for the past three years, has three seniors as his assistants.

These boys help keep the kitchen machinery in good working conditions, and arrange the food supplies in the storeroom.

Juan Solis and Charles Olivier have been his assistants for the past three years. Enrique Diez joined them earlier this year.

Assisting Brother Athanasius in the maintenance of the landscape by trimming hedges, raking the yard, and culting the grass are Jorge Casares, Fred Gruber, Joe Merren, David Alavrez, and Joe Bethke.

Jorge is the only veteran of the group, this being his second year at the job.

In the laundry department, Brother Ramon is aided by Richard Vinson and Lenny Aucoin, who help him with the dry-cleaning and the distribution of clothes.

Doing odd jobs such as painting the bus garage is the specialty of Brother Loyola and his crew, Sandy Parrot and Mike Morrison.

Max Duncan, Marty Adams, and John Bonura help keep the grounds looking neat by disposing of the waste paper in the outside containers each afternoon.

At the present time, Joseph Vallee is in charge of all business at the Candy Shop where he is doing an excellent job. He is ably assisted by Thomas Loftus.

Seniors Meet Varsity Tonight; Winners, Chicken; Losers, Beans
